

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, the Shelbina Chamber of Commerce will soon honor area farmers during the Farmer's Day Parade and Recognition; and

Whereas, among those being honored is Dean Henderson, who has been farming since 1952; and

Whereas, Dean Henderson is active in the Grange organization on the state and national levels, is a member of the Mount Zion Baptist Church, and volunteers as a 4-H Project Leader; and

Whereas, Dean Henderson served as the President of the Missouri State Grange for nine years, and received many awards and commendations including the Grange Award; and

Whereas, Dean Henderson's wife, Virginia Henderson, served as a national Grange officer for seven years; and

Whereas, both Dean and Virginia Henderson serve on the Emden Memorial Garden Cemetery Board; and

Whereas, Dean Henderson and Virginia Henderson are the devoted parents of Kenneth Henderson, Dee Ann Ide, and Jennifer Rich:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our sincerest congratulations to Dean Henderson the auspicious occasion of being formally recognized by the Shelbina Chamber of Commerce as a farmer deserving appreciation; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Dean Henderson.
